

PRIVACY POLICY

Thank you for visiting the Dallas Women Lawyers Association (DWLA) website. We provide this Privacy Policy so that you can know our practices regarding the collection and use of information about visitors to this site.

Your Information

DWLA collects personal information that you give us when you become a DWLA member or when you sign up for an event. This typically includes your name, address, email, telephone number and other data such as your practice area(s), date of admission to the Bar, and Committee membership. On occasion, DWLA will use this information to help us improve our site. DWLA does not provide your information to any third parties.

DWLA is concerned about the privacy of our members. Therefore, we use industry standard technology protections based on best practices to make sure that our transaction processes are safe, and that our members information is secure.

Automatic Information

Examples of the information we collect and analyze include the Internet protocol (IP) address used to connect your computer to the Internet; login; email address; password; computer and connection information such as browser type and version, operating system, and platform. Like most websites, we also use cookies.
